

College Corps Community Service Showcase

planting lettuce starts

teaching pollination class

showing Tucker the sheep

City Farm San Luis Obispo

1221 Calle Joaquin, San Luis Obispo 93405

January 19, 2024

A gathering of Central Coast College Corps Fellows attending Cal Poly partnered with service organizations including San Luis Coastal Unified School District, City Farm SLO, SLO Climate Coalition, City of SLO, Big Brothers Big Sisters, Cal Poly Sustainability, Cal Poly Food Pantry, SLO Food Bank and Ecologistics.

They will be joined by Josh Fryday, State Director of California Volunteers, local and State elected officials or their representatives, and organization sponsors to exchange ideas and learn more about the program. College Corps, now in its second successful year enrolls 3,268 students Statewide and 264 in our local region.

Fellows will take part in a Round Table Discussion beginning at 10:30 A.M. to be followed by a tour of City Farm facilities and activities, including a third grade Farm field trip, all conducted by present College Corps Fellows. The tour will start at 11:00 A.M. and conclude at 11:45 with a media briefing session.

For more information, please contact: collegecorps@calpoly.edu

californiavolunteers.ca.gov/californiansforall-college-corps-for-college-students/